Tzedek in Action: Jewish Service Learning With Repair the World

Begin ProCon 2025 with a hands-on Jewish service-learning project on Monday from 8–11:30 a.m. (including travel) facilitated by alumni of the Tzedek cohort. In partnership with Repair the World, we'll help the Minneapolis community address food insecurity by sorting and packing food at Second Harvest Heartland. In addition, you'll connect with other participants, study food insecurity and relevant Jewish beliefs, and participate in a guided reflection—equipping you with ideas and skills to take back to your JCC. Space is limited—register early!

Facilitators:

Hannah Grossman, Repair the World,
Roslyn Kaman, Miles Nadal JCC, Toronto, Ont.
Tara Ohayon (Aaron Family JCC, Dallas, Texas)

Maximum: 40 participants

Visit the Capp Center Campus of the Minnesota JCC in St. Paul

Join us on Monday from 8–11:30 a.m. (including travel) when the Minnesota JCC's Capp Center St. Paul will open its doors to us for a campus tour, conversations with staff, and an opportunity to connect with the leadership team. You'll see the JCC in action and gain insights and ideas to take home with you. Space is limited and advance registration is required.

Facilitator: Alex Fisher, CPO, Minnesota JCC

Maximum: 50 participants
